ГРУППА РАДУГА

The wall features a large, colorful rainbow graphic. To the left, there is a large, stylized title in Russian: "ГРУППА РАДУГА" (Rainbow Group). Below the title, there are several children's drawings and posters. One drawing shows a boy with a red flower. Another shows a girl with a yellow flower. There are also some text-based posters and a small calendar or schedule.

Informational posters and notices.

A collection of colorful folders (orange, pink, yellow) and several white papers with text, likely notices or schedules, are pinned to the wall.
